munal tension and was encouraging divisive forces to exploit the situation can't solve the crisis and the people of the West Bengal became anxious following her statements," he said. The provocative statements of state BJP president Dilip Ghosh were already causing communal tension and creating division in the state.

Bose said, chief minister, party meeting in the state to prepare a strategy to mount pressure on the Centre to resolve the crisis.

He further said the TMC-led government's efforts to develop the state had become futile and many people died of starvation.

"Farmers committed suicide and many are suffering from mental depression. But Banerjee is claiming that the state is developing rapidly," LF chairman Biman Bose said.

Bose also criticizes TMC's syndicate politics which is your are using job opportunities here. Common people have to pay the price of the syndicate culture. Our chief minister is fooling people with her hollow promises," he said.

Left Front chairman also ruled out TMC's allegation that the CPI-M had links with the Maoists for which the Maoists were entering the state from Jharkhand.

"It is false campaigning against our party. We have no link with any Maoist group. Now people understand the TMC's bluff," he said.

Banerjee also questioned why the government was focusing only on illegal migrants from Bangladesh, when India also hosts a sizeable migrant population from Nepal. Illegal migration, she asserted, was not a one-time, isolated issue involving only Bangladesh. "Borders are not with state governments but with the Centre," she added, making it clear that the onus of securing the borders lies on the Centre.

The Trinamul chief also charged that the BJP was playing "vote bank politics" on the NRC issue. "Whoever is a BJP voter will be in the list... those who are not, will be deleted from the list... Will you drive out everyone in the name of Bangladeshis?" she asked. She appealed to all Opposition parties to send their delegations to Assam.

Banerjee maintained that the NRC exercise was being carried out by the BJP, which rules both the Centre and Assam, with a "political motive" to "divide and isolate people" which, she again warned, would lead to "bloodbath and civil war" in the country.

On the third day of her visit to New Delhi, Banerjee, who has been going all out to forge a united Opposition front to take on the BJP, met a slew of Opposition leaders including UPA chairperson Sonia Gandhi and Congress president Rahul Gandhi.

Apart from leaders of the Congress, TDP, SP, JD-S, YSR (Congress), DMK, RJD, and NCP, she also met BJP stalwart L K Advani, dissident BJP leaders, and Shiv Sena MP Sanjay Raut. She met most of these leaders at Parliament House.

The Trinamul chief also invited the Opposition leaders as well as Sena chief Uddhav Thackeray to her 19 January rally in Kolkata, which is expected to be a mega show of a combined Opposition against the Narendra Modi dispensation in the run-up to the 2019 general elections.

"The Opposition is united... In 2019, BJP will be finished... We will take a decision on collective leadership," Banerjee reportedly told media persons after her meeting with the Gandhis at Sonia's 10 Janpath residence this evening.

She said they discussed the NRC issue and "how the Opposition can together take on the BJP". Asked about the PM candidate of the proposed anti-BJP front, Banerjee said, "It will be decided later. The first priority is to defeat the BJP".

Attacking the Centre on the NRC issue, she also said, "People whose names have been kept out are from Bihar, UP, Tamil Nadu, Gujarat, West Bengal. We want them to live peacefully. Some of them have been living for 100 years for five generations in Assam. How can you do this to them?"

Banerjee charged, "The BJP knows what will happen to them in 2019 as they will not come back to power. That is why they are trying to create such an atmosphere and doing all this."
