ering before returning last year.

Speaking in a news conference at the French Open on Friday, the 28-year-old Czech, ranked back at eighth in the world, said: "Well, of course great news for me to hear that. It's good that they have him in custody."

"But probably the most, the happiest I will be when the story will end, when everything will be done and finished."

"I can't really say anything more, but so far I'm very happy with this, and I'm just here to play tennis and we will see what happens after."

Grand Slam of the year starting in August, has yet to announce its prize money. Last year it became the first tennis tournament to top $50 million (37.56 million pounds) following a nine percent rise in the total purse.
